

By the end of the lesson, the student will be able to:
* formulate sentences related to asking for a favor.

Dialogue

A: Hey Jess, could you do me a favor?

B: Sure John. What do you want?

A: Could you pass me the brush?

B: Okay. Here you are.

A: And the hammer and nails please.

B: Here. Do you need anything else?

A: Yeah. I need the red and blue paint.

B: Here they are.

A: Thanks Jess. You can go now.

B: Okay. Be careful.

brush

hammer and nails

Vocabulary

paint

Let's Talk

1. What favor would you ask in these situations?
 - A. You are broke.
 - B. You are cold.
 - C. You are late.
 - D. You are out of milk.
 - E. You are wet.
 - F. You are bleeding.
 - G. You are sick.