

At the end of the lesson, the student will be able to:
*discuss with the teacher his/her likes and dislikes.

Dialogue

Kyle: Hi! Can I sit here?

Kelly: Sure!

Kyle: Do you skate?

Kelly: Yeah! I do, I figure skate since I was a little girl. How about you?

Kyle: Well I don't know much about figure skating but I really like to watch, but I play Hockey.

Kelly: Really? I like to watch Hockey too. But I don't play.

Kyle: It's really easy, maybe I could teach you some other time.

Kelly: Really? That'll be great.

Kyle: Sure. Can you teach me how to figure skate too?

Kelly: With pleasure!

Kyle: Great!

Useful Expressions:

LIKES

I like to...

I love to...

I really like to...

I'd prefer A to B

I'm interested in...

DISLIKES

I don't like to...

I hate to....

I'm not a +adjective

I wouldn't prefer A to B

I'm not interested in...

Let's Talk!

1. What sport do you like?
2. What job are you interested in?
3. What country do you like to visit? Why?
4. What language do you like to learn aside from English?
5. Would you prefer coffee to tea? Why or why not?