

At the end of the lesson, the student will be able to:

* apply the words and expressions learned from this topic by sharing experiences about someone in a state of trouble.

Dialogue

A: John, hello. 1Do you have a minute?

B: Sure, Mike. You seem to be in trouble. What's the matter?

A: Someone stole my laptop a week ago.

B: Oh no! What happened?

A: Actually, I was taking a bath, and I left my laptop over the study table, just like I always do. After my bath, I noticed my laptop was gone! I'd probably forgotten to keep the door locked.

B: That's dreadful! Was your laptop the new one?

A: Of course! I bought it just few weeks ago. The worst thing is my report was saved at the laptop! 2I'm losing my head!

Useful Expressions

1. Can I talk to you for a moment?
Can I have a word with you?
Do you have a minute?
2. I'm gonna be crazy!
I'm gonna be insane.

Let's Talk

1. What made Mike mad?
2. If the same thing happens to you, what would you do?
3. Have a friend of yours shared his/her trouble to you? What did you do?
4. What do you think is the best way to air out one's anger? Support your answer.
