

At the end of the lesson, the student will be able to:

* share their observation on who usually is the superior in a relationship and its effect towards the relationship.

Read the Dialogue:

Icee: What's up with you Mardie? You look like you carry the whole World.

Mardie: Yeah, it's my husband. He's such a mama's boy. He doesn't even lift a finger to help me do the house chores.

Icee: That's terrible. My husband is just the opposite. He's more than willing to give me a hand with the housework .

Mardie: It sounds like you hit the jackpot when you married him. I've been married for three years and my husband hasn't bought me flowers yet.

Icee: Have you tried talking to his family about the situation? Surely they can help.

Mardie: Well my husband is the apple of their eyes. As far as they are concerned he can do no wrong. I agree on that idea because he does nothing at all. Oh, there's one thing he can do - he can drink every day after work with his buddies.

Icee: Gosh! It sounds like you are struck between a rock and a hard place. If you stay with him, it's only the same as if you walk out on him.

Mardie: I think I can't handle this anymore. It's an unhappy relationship.
