Six tips for writing an inquiry letter:

- Begin your letter by stating who you are and giving your status or position.
- Clearly state what it is that you are inquiring about and what you would like the recipient of your letter to do. Make your inquiry as specific as possible.
- You might want to briefly explain the purpose of your letter or what you hope to accomplish.
- Include the date by which you need the information, services, etc. that you are requesting, and indicate that you await the reader's response.
- Thank the person for his/her time.

Elements of Business Letter:

- 1. Sender's Address and Date- give the following information: house number, street, area code, place, country, telephone.
 - Sender's address below the date:
- 2. Recipient's Address- starts two lines below the sender's address.
- 3. Salutation in a Business Letter
 - A: If you know the person's name:
 - B: If you don't know the person's name:
 - C: Punctuation: Use colon
- 4. Subject Line English, the subject line can also be placed between the recipient's address and the salutation (with a blank line in between).
- 5. Body of the letter- Capitalize and indent the first word of the text. The next text is left justified. And a space is put after each paragraph.

CONTENT:

- A: 1st paragraph Introduction and reason for writing.
- B: Following paragraphs Explain the reason in details and background information, etc.
- C: Last paragraph Summarize your reasons and make clear what you want the recipient to do.
- 6. Greeting in Business letter: Use "sincerely". Write the greeting two lines below the last paragraph. Leave 4 blank lines after the greeting (space for the signature) and write the sender's name below that space.
