

Multiple Choice

1. How many automakers are working with the California Fuel Cell Partnership on this project?
 - a) 2
 - b) 4
 - c) 8
 - d) 10

2. Hydrogen is the fuel for fuel cell cars. It is flammable. What is the concern with this fuel?
 - a) Fire
 - b) Pressure
 - c) Cost
 - d) Availability

3. According to the news, there will have to be a network of hydrogen stations allowing drivers to fill up with a flammable gas under "36-hundred pounds of pressure". How else might that number be written?
 - a) 360
 - b) 3600
 - c) 36000
 - d) 360000

Your Turn

1. What are the main methods of transportation where you live?
2. What power source is used for automobiles, trucks, and buses?
3. What are the advantages and disadvantages of these forms of transportation?